

14th Sri Lanka Economic Research Conference (SLERC) – 2025

Abstract Submission Guidelines

Extended Abstract should be prepared and submitted electronically (MS word).

To facilitate a blind review process, the authors are expected to upload the full paper without disclosing the authors' names and affiliations in the initial submission (see Abstract Template). However, details of ALL authors should be included separately in the Author Declaration Form.

Please refer the Abstract Template and following guidelines when preparing your submission. Only submissions that comply with the guidelines will qualify for the review process.

- Length: Maximum word limit 1500 words (Excluding tables, figures and list of references).
- Paper size and orientation: A4, Portrait
- Margins: Abstracts must use single spacing, font size 12 in Times New Roman and all margins: 1.5 inches (left) and 1 inch (top, right and bottom).
- File format: MS Word, name the attachment, "Last name of the first author _SLERC 2025"
- Title: Written in upper case, font size 14, bold, upper case and centered
- Content: Introduction with objectives, Methodology, Results and Discussion, and Conclusion.
- References: Limit to 4-6 key references and follow the APA style.
- Figures, Images and Tables can be included if necessary.
- All abstracts should be professionally edited for language before submission.
- The conference committee reserves the right to submit abstracts to plagiarism detecting software or to take any other steps appropriate to identify plagiarism. The acceptable range of Similarity Index is up to 20 percent.
- Abstract submissions without these specifications will not be included in the conference program.
- At least one author of a research paper must be registered and attend the conference to publish the abstracts in the conference proceedings.
- All authors of the abstracts accepted for presentation are invited to submit a full paper which will be considered for publishing in the Sri Lanka Journal of Economic Research (SLJER).

Abstract submission deadline: 20th April, 2025

Abstracts are to be submitted through the following link: Abstract Submission